How It Works

Escrow transactions are divided into 4 easy steps:

1. Agreement: Either Buyer or Seller begins the transaction by providing details about the merchandise to be sold. Both parties review and accept the details and terms of the agreement before proceeding.
2. Payment: Once the terms are agreed to by both parties, the Buyer remits payment to escrow.com's subsidiary, EC Services, where the funds are verified and secured. EC Services then transfers the funds into the Fidelity escrow trust account.
3. Shipment: The escrow.com site notifies the Seller that the Buyer's payment is securely held in escrow. The Seller then ships the merchandise to the Buyer. The Seller is required to use an escrow.com-approved courier, allowing the shipment to be tracked.
4. Inspection: Merchandise is received by the Buyer. The Buyer decides to accept or reject the merchandise within an inspection time period agreed to by both parties. If the Buyer accepts the goods, Fidelity releases the funds to the Seller.

We coordinate the entire process for you--no communication has to be made between you and the Seller. The escrow.com site sends email notifications to both parties as the transaction proceeds, so you don't have to sign in to find out the status of your transaction--just sit back and wait for an email from us.
